Falmouth Reads Together: 2014 Calendar of Events

Keynote event by author Roseanne Montillo. A Tale of Dissections, Real-Life Dr. Frankensteins, and the Creation of Mary Shelley's Masterpiece. Falmouth Public Library.

Understanding the Other: the Human in the Monster, the Monster in the Human - Sat., Feb. 8 at 2 PM

Panel discussion examining ethical, psychological & spiritual issues, as well as the Monster as cultural icon. Panelists: Camala Richardson, Esq., Alice Kociemba, LICSW, David Kociemba, Adj. Prof. Emerson College. Falmouth Public Library.

Electric Fields and Human Healing - Sat., March 29 at 2 PM.

Neurobiologist Mark Messerli of MBL, sharing his research in the mechanism by which electric fields may optimize wound healing and neuron regeneration. Falmouth Public Library.

Medical & Ethical Conflict in Frankenstein - Sat., April 5 at 2 PM.

Richard Ratzan, MD, Emergency Medicine physician, author, and advocate for literature as a means to examine ethical issues in health care. Falmouth Public Library.

Frankenstein Monster Dash - Sun., April 13 at 10 AM, FREE, Trotting Park off Gifford Street

Inspired by Frankenstein: Monstrously Good Poems! - Sun., April 27 from 3-5 PM, West Falmouth Library

Poets & poetry lovers of all ages invited to read or listen to fun, silly, or serious poems inspired by the Frankenstein story. Hosted by local poet Alice Kociemba.

Falmouth Theatre Guild presents Young Frankenstein - May 2-4, 9-11, 16-18, Highfield Theater, Falmouth
Musical theater spoof of Mary Shelley's gothic tale, written by Gene Wilder & Mel Brooks. To purchase tickets call Highfield Theater: 508-548-0400 or visit the Falmouth Theatre Guild.

Frankenstein Film Series

March 1 - Son of Frankenstein - 1939, B/W, Boris Karloff, Basil Rathbone, Bela Lugosi.

Frankenstein Book Discussions

Tues., Feb. 11, 10 AM - East Falmouth Library, 310 E. Falmouth Highway (Rte. 28).

Mon., March 3, 7 PM - Science Fiction Book Club, Falmouth Public Library, Trustees Room.

Wed., March 19, 7 PM - Falmouth Public Library, 300 Main Street.

Thurs., March 20, 10 AM - Falmouth Public Library, 300 Main Street.

Children's Programs

(Not Very) Scary Monster Storytime Sat., March 8 at 10:30 AM, Children's Program Room, Falmouth Public Library
For families with children of all ages - A "monstrous" good time! Listen to stories, sing songs & make a craft. We promise it won't be TOO scary. (But it might be a little scary!)

What Makes You Special? Science Saturday, April 5 at 10:30 AM, Children's Room, Falmouth Public Library

For parents & children. Don't be afraid of skeletons - we all have them! Fun activities to learn how skin, bones & organs work together to keep you healthy & happy! Sponsored by the Coalition for Children.