Falmouth Reads Together: 2015 Calendar of Events

February 19 7:30 PM
Restorative Justice Panel, sponsored by the League of Women Voters.

March 10 10:00 AM

March 17-31st
BIG LIBRARY READ
OverDrive users will be able to read Shakespeare Saved My Life: Ten Years in Solitary with the Bard, by Laura Bates, without any wait lists or holds.

April 2 10:00 AM
Falmouth Public Library Narrative Nonfiction Book Club discusses Shakespeare Saved My Life.

April 11 2:00 PM
Educator Lalise Melillo presents Changing Macbeth, a talk that will focus on how Shakespeare changes the character of Macbeth as he moves toward and through violence.

April 18 3:00 PM
Inspired by Shakespeare: Poetry Saved My Life, an open mic event for all poets and those who love poetry.

April 25 2:00 PM
UMass-Boston students will discuss teaching poetry to inmates at the Bay State Correctional Center. Kate Glavin received her M.A. in English Literature from the University of South Dakota in 2010. Since then she has been teaching creative writing, literature, and composition at a variety of institutions, including the prison classroom. She is currently an MFA candidate in poetry at UMass Boston and leads the affiliated Poetry Group at MCI Baystate. Adam M. Graaf is completing his MFA at the University of Massachusetts Boston where he currently teaches creative writing. He previously taught poetry at Bay State Correctional Center and tutored students enrolled in the Veterans Upward Bound program. Adam is an active member of Warrior Writers Boston where he co-facilitates writing workshops for veterans. His work has appeared or is forthcoming in War, Literature & the Arts, Breakwater Review, and CONSEQUENCE. In 2013, Adam received the New England Poetry Club’s The John Holmes Award. Alyssa Mazzarella is an MFA candidate in poetry and a creative writing instructor at UMass Boston. While at UMass, she has received an Academy of American Poets Prize, a Mary Doyle Curran Creative Writing scholarship, and a Brian Rattigan scholarship. She’s previously taught at Baystate Correctional Center and the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute and holds a BFA in Writing, Literature, and Publishing from Emerson College. Her poems have appeared in Freshwater and Common Ground Review.

April 27 7:30 PM
Prosser Gifford and Bob Pelletreau will lead the programs on Shakespeare and Dr. Bates' book at the Woods Hole Library.
April 30 3:30 PM
Prosser Gifford and Bob Pelletreau will lead the programs on Shakespeare and Dr. Bates’ book at the Woods Hole Library.

May 2 10:00 AM
Author Laura Bates comes to Falmouth to discuss her book. Co-sponsored by Eight Cousins Bookstore.