

Falmouth Reads Together 2026

BINGO

Attend a Braiding Sweetgrass book discussion.	Prepare food and share a meal with a loved one.	Plant a native species.	Go on a nature walk.
Contact your local representative about an environmental issue of importance to you.	Learn how to recognize and name a local plant or animal.	Create artwork using natural or found materials.	Buy local produce.
Attend a Falmouth Reads Together event.	Make a list of five things the Earth gives you every day.	Walk or bike instead of driving for an errand.	Read another one of Robin Wall Kimmerer's books: The Serviceberry or Gathering Moss .
Send a thank you note or make a gift for a friend or neighbor.	Learn about the Indigenous peoples connected to the land where you live.	Spend time caring for something living (plant, pet, place).	Participate in a activity hosted by the 300 Committee. www.300committee.org

Complete any 5 Bingo squares. Fill out and return to the Falmouth Library to be entered into a prize drawing for a signed copy of "Braiding Sweetgrass," a membership to Highfield Hall, and other gardening goodies. Return by May 1, 2026.
